Management Experience: 20+ years

Industry Experience: 30+ years

Dale is a founding member of Chiel and it's down to his and Martin's hands on approach and exceptional teamwork that Chiel has become what it is today. Dale uses his extensive knowledge of the construction industry, from civils and groundworks to new builds and refurbishment works, to find solutions to any challenge Chiel faces. Dale oversees all site operations, keeping a tight rein on project manoeuvres to ensure jobs are completed on time and to a high standard. A natural leader with strong motivation skills, Dale always manages to cajole the site team to achieve positive results.
